The game is getting good at the St.
Awaaph track and seventeen pencillers ere on to-day, the largest number for extorne time. There was also a noticeable stricrease in the attendance, the weather peing all that could be desired by the most ardent turf lover. The track was in splendid shape and fast racing was

The sport started as usual with a race for maidens. Betting was spirited, as there were any number of good things entered. When speculation was over, the Elise Morrison filly was found to b favorite, with Festival and Ninevah next in demand. Buckeye was wel played for the place.

The race resulted in one of the bes finishes of the meeting. At the deciding numers or the meeting. At the deciding point six horses were so closely bunched that the proverbial blanket could have covered them. It was a close race all through. Ninevah and Buckeye moving up in the stretch and beating the Elise Morrison filly. Festival and Pretence, who had acted as pacemakers the first part of the route.

William H. Named for Governor In the Seventh District.

The Board of County Canvassers be-gan the third day's session in the Al-gan the third day's session in the Aldermanic chamber about 10 o'clock this morning, and took up the Sixth Assembly District count.

It was 10 o'clock last night when the canvassers adjourned, after a continuous session of twelve and one-half hours. The canvass up to this morning shows the following Aldermen officially declared elected:

First District—Jenemish Kennefick, D. Second District—Christian Geetz, R. Pourth District—Andrea A. Noons., D. Fifth District—William Clancey, D. Sixth District—William Clancey, D. Sixth District—William Clancey, D. Sixth District—William Clancey, D. Sixth District—William Tait. D. The Sixth Assembly District count was completed at 12:40 P. M., and the Seventh Assembly District taken up, Alderman O'Brien, of the Twenty-second Aldermanic District, calling off the returns. The returns from the Twenty-first Election District of the Seventh Assembly District of the Seventh Assembly District recorded one vote for William H. Vanderbilt for Governor. John Murky Mitchell, the defeated Republican candidate for Congressman, in the Eighth Congressional District, filed a protest this afternoon. He alleges that there has been several gross errors in the returns from the Second Election District of the Second Assembly District and several other election districts in the same Assembly district.
